In page 11, line 17 after "Dynamic Data Space" please insert, now US Patent 6,728,922.

In page 11, line 21 after "Instant Snapshot", please insert now US Patent 7,072,916.

In page 12, line 4 after "Improved Space Allocation in a Write Anywhere File System", please insert now US Patent 6,636,879.

In page 12, line 11 after "persistent and reliable Delivery of Event Messages," please insert now US Patent 6,910,154.

In the Claim:

Please replace the following:

30. (Currently amended) A method comprising:

maintaining in a computer system a file system that includes a live filesystem accessible to users and a zombie filesystem not accessible to users;

in response to a request to delete at least a portion of a file stored in the live filesystem, moving blocks storing said portion of the file from the live filesystem to the zombie filesystem and deleting at least some of the blocks from the zombie filesystem before a scheduled consistency checkpoint of the file system;

recording said moving and deleting in a persistent memory; and

in response to a service interruption in the computer system ~~crash of the file system,~~ recovering the file system in the computer system by replaying said moving and deleting based on information stored in the persistent memory ~~to recover the file system.~~

41. (Currently amended) A method comprising:

maintaining in a computer system a file system that includes a live filesystem accessible to users and a zombie filesystem not accessible to users;

in response to a request to delete a file having attached data elements from the live filesystem, moving blocks storing the file and the attached data elements from the live filesystem to the zombie filesystem, and deleting at least some of the blocks from the zombie filesystem before a scheduled consistency checkpoint of the file system;

recording said moving and deleting in a persistent memory; and

in response to a service interruption in the computer system ~~crash of the file system~~, recovering the file system in the computer system by replaying said moving and deleting based on information stored in the persistent memory ~~to recover the file system~~.

44. (Currently amended) A machine-readable medium having instructions, when executed by a processor in a machine, cause a the machine to perform a method, the method comprising:

maintaining in a computer system a file system that includes a live filesystem accessible to users and a zombie filesystem not accessible to users;

in response to a request to delete a file from the live filesystem, moving blocks storing the file from the live filesystem to the zombie filesystem and deleting at least some of the blocks from the zombie filesystem before a scheduled consistency checkpoint of the file system;

49. (Currently amended) A machine-readable medium having instructions, when executed by a processor in a machine, cause a the machine to perform a method, the method comprising:

maintaining in a computer system a file system that includes a live filesystem accessible to users and a zombie filesystem not accessible to users;

in response to a request to truncate a file stored in the live filesystem, moving blocks storing a portion of the file to be truncated from the live filesystem to the zombie filesystem and deleting at least some of the blocks from the zombie filesystem before a scheduled consistency checkpoint of the file system; recording changes of the live filesystem and the zombie filesystem caused by said moving and deleting in a persistent memory; and in response to a service interruption in the computer system ~~crash of the file system~~, recovering the file system in the computer system by replaying said moving and deleting based on information stored in the persistent memory ~~to recover the file system~~.

54. (Currently amended) A storage server comprising:

a processor;

a network interface through which to communicate with a client;

a storage interface through which to access a plurality of mass storage devices on behalf of the client; and a memory coupled to the processor, the memory storing instructions which, when executed by the processor, cause the storage server to perform a process comprising:

Art Unit: 2162

maintaining in a computer system a file system that includes a live filespace accessible to the client and a zombie filespace not accessible to the client;

in response to a request to delete at least a portion of a file stored in the live filespace, moving blocks storing said portion of the file from the live filespace to the zombie filespace and deleting at least some of the blocks from the zombie filespace before a scheduled consistency checkpoint of the file system;

recording said moving and deleting in a persistent memory; and
